

EBOLA ALERT

All the travelers who have visited or transited from African countries primarily West African countries which are affected with EVD like Guinea, Liberia, Sierra Leone and Nigeria (and also from central African countries which have been affected during past)* and are suffering from fever, weakness, muscle pain, headache, sore throat, vomiting, diarrhea, bleeding or have been in direct contact with or with body fluids of a person or animal affected with EVD should immediately report to health officer on arrival.

ADVISORY:

Any traveler who after visiting above countries develops above mentioned symptoms up to 30 days of arrival in India should immediately visit nearest the designated hospital

* Updated list of affected countries can be seen from the WHO website

 List of designated hospitals can be seen from MOHFW website