Mumbai, September 30, 2021: As a portrayal of India's Independence and its glorious history, Chhatrapati Shivaji Maharaj International Airport (CSMIA) is organising exciting activities and programmes for its passengers to celebrate 'Azadi ka Amrit Mahotsav'. To commemorate 75 years of progressive India, this celebration will bring together passengers to experience fun-filled events for an exciting transit from CSMIA.

Engaging and enthralling passengers at the airport, CSMIA has organised slew of programmes and events to create excitement amongst the travellers. Starting October 1st, CSMIA will host a three-day long Warli Art painting workshop, where artists will teach passengers & kids passing through the terminal to paint the artform on the provided Giftcards. At the end of art session, passengers can take the finished piece along with them as a souvenir. Warli painting is a form of tribal art that roots from the North Sahyadri Range in Maharashtra. Painted white on mud walls, the art form is pretty close to pre-historic cave paintings in execution and usually depict scenes of human figures engaged in day-to-day activities. Speaking of history, CSMIA, to commemorate and celebrate our unsung heroes – our freedom fighters, the airport respectfully pays ode to the martyrs who contributed to today's Independent India by displaying their courage and contribution on CSMIA's social media platforms.
